POOLROOM MEN PLAN TO RAID LOCAL BETTING RINGS.

De Lacy and Davis to Head Warfare Against the Jockey Club-Boots Durnell Permitted to Enter the Track for One Day-Layers Lose Heavily on Israfel.

While the Queens County Jockey Club con-tinued to shut off all pracetrack information from the poolrooms yesterday it was said on excellent authority that the poolroom men are preparing to retaliate, and that they will be organized in a few days under the leader ship of Peter De Lacy and Robert Davis to begin a war upon the Jockey Club. It was also said that the various room keepers had been asked to contribute to a fund with which to defray the expenses of a legal battle, and that in the near future wholesale arrests of bookmakers at the track would be made, with the purpose of testing once more the legality of the law.

The poolroom men, it was stated, would apply for warrants from several police Magistrates, and would continue raiding the ring all the season until the matter can be defiall the season until the matter can be den-nitely settled in the courts. The poolrooms have surons political backing, it was stated, and they intend to make use of it in a fight to a finish. Meanwhile the Jockey Club officials declared yesterday that they intended to give no quarter to the poolrooms, and that increased vigilance would be exercised in he present attempt to prevent any racetrack information from leaking.

At Aqueduct yesterday the poolroom agents were still making attempts to get the news to their employers, but the Pnikerton detectires were on their heels at all times. Several runners employed bicycles to ride to tele-phones at Ozone Park, but the trip consumed so much time that the information was con-sidered valueless. A well known room keeper came to the track early and looked over the ground with the idea of establishing a telephone bureau just outside of the gates so that runners, in relays, could provide the desired information. It was also rumored that a balloon might be used, but the Pinkerton's said that such a scheme was abourd. The sum and substance of the situation was that olrooms were still severely crippled. and that if they could not improve upon their news service most of them would have to suspend operations.

Boots Durnell, the trainer who was re cently ruled off the turf for life by the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, made his appearance at the track just before the first race and was admitted. But he got in only on a special permit which was good for the day, as he had some business to attend to in relation to the sale of his racing stable at the track next Under the rules of racing a man ruled off the turf by a recognized tookey club cannot enjoy the privileges of the Eastern tracks. As the rule will be enforced in Dursell's case he will have to remain away from the races in future until the ban is lifted by the alifornia turf authorities

The ring lost a large amount on Israfel in the second race, several clubhouse players cleaning up handsomely. This colt is a three-rear-old by Meddler—Geisha, who ran just one race last year, and that was in the colors Harry Payne Whitney. He was sold last fall to George F. Johnson and yesterday was marked for the carrying off of the goods.

Accordingly the wise men grabbed up 2 to 1 sif it was money from home. They pounded the price down to 3 to 2, and when the Meddler olt was on the way to the post they pounded the price down to even money. When Israfel belonged to Whitney he never showed fractions behavior, but he possibly developed an usly temper during his winter's rest. At my rate, when Dickson got into the saddle in the paddcok Israfel was sweating profusely and seemed so unruly that a stable hand took him by the head and led him to the barrier in advance of the others. Israfel is trained by F. McCreery, who has charge of Frederick Johnson's horses, too. That McCreery had the colt ready was quickly shown by his spreadeagle racing. But ifter the race the question was asked: s it necessary to lead some of the horses rsined by McC reery to the post?" Look out for Drake's horses, as they are all ready!" This bit of information has been soing the rounds of the track ever since the sport began on Monday. Just So was enhe was handed out as the best thing of the day. Drake and his usual turf associates ere not at the track, but Just So received world of backing just the same. There as as much as 7 to 5 against him at the opening of the speculation, but the support acorded to him was so extensive that he was nally sent to the post a 7 to 10 favorite. And brake would have won, too, had it not been or a bungling ride. As it was Just So would ave won in another stride. Little Tim Sullivan was among the visitors He was hunted up in the clubhouse just before the third race by some of the faithful and was asked if Big Tim's D'Arkle was worth tet. Little Tim said that he did not believ Parkle had a chance, and told his friend that he was betting on Mike Clancy's Tomin Waddell all three ways. The rank and fil the gamely play the Sullivan stable, how ver, did not have the right cue, it seemed or D'Arkle was backed from 8 down to 1 run unplaced. Tommy Waddell on the other hand came within half a length winning, and his defeat was probably due a careless ride. The wise menn heedless of the fact that the Bennington stable is in great form just now, passed Edna Jackson p and plunged on Monet. Edna Jackson was in superb fettle and proceeded to equal he track record for six furlongs. She will a hard mare to beat this year, according to the track sharps. Herman Radtke is rapidly winning his way in popular favor. He rode two winners and a second. No sooner had the last race been started than a red faced man, ablaze with stritement, set up a roar behind the press ber that attracted attention. Though i was impossible to distinguish one horse from mother half a mile away up the chute, this person yelled with leather lungs: Come on you, Radtke! Come on you, boy Radtke wins!" "Shut up, you're crazy!" shouted another Citable individual who had a bet on Merrill, he favorite. But the follower of Radtke ontinued to bellow until he was ready to

And he called the turn, too, Radtke had been in front all the way with rushman, 8 to 1, the winner. "Who's crazy now!" screamed he of the ather lungs as he glared at the backer of ttract, who had done some fast trials for this see. Norfolk, the Paget colt, who was also disappointing investment is by Goldfinchmpress of Norfolk. James R. Keene's esey, who ran second in this event, is by lingston-Sylvabelle. He was liberally layed in the show books.

Believing that Radtke could put it over saird, the shrewd paddock operators backed ay down to 7 to 2 to beat Bemay in the Rose takes, but Baird fooled them by putting up he neatest kind of a finish.

Wally Fessenden, who puts over a killing oce in a while with Pass Book, started this in the fifth race. But nobody bet him and he came in last. Fessenden, lowever, believed that he had a chance to More a success with Lady Valentme in the Moond event and the filly was well played at to 2. But as far as racing went she had thing on Pass Book.

Kansas Price put up a stable boy named yes on Deuxtemps in the second event and got as much as 15 to 1 for his money played it across the boards and beat the e, as the Sir Modred gelding dropped the second pocket. Drake's Elm Ridge, o ran third at 20 to 1, was unbacked by ousin Kate was heavily played to beat hap for the place in the first race and she asht have turned the trick if she had not en shut off. Lady Amelia ran the five longs in 0:59 2-5, a fifth of a second behind the track record. It super for her at that. It was only an exercise

BEMAY WINS ROSE STAKES. Defeats Oneck Stable's Fay in a Sharp Finish.

Excellent racing was produced by the card at Aqueduct yesterday, where 10,000 persons enjoyed an outing. The Rose Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, four furlongs, was one of the features. It turned out a winner in W. H. Snyder's Bernay, 7 to 5, favorite, who was cleverly ridden by Harry Baird. Yet it was not an easy thing by any means, for Bemay did not overhaul the Oneck Stable's Fay, to 2, until the last sixteenth pole. Fay had made the pace up to that point and hung on so well under Radtke's drive that Bemay only beat her half a length in 0:47. James R. Keene's Economy, 12 to 1, was a poor third. The most sensational finish was that in the fifth race, a selling event, at a mile. John A. Drake's Just So. a 7 to 10 favorite, was rather poorly ridden by Garner at the outset as he got into several pockets and was shut off when he finally secured the rail on the far turn. Meanwhile Radthe was sailing out in front with Yorkshire Lad, 16 to 5, but Garner finally got up on the rail again, and with W. Robbins challenging with Jack McKeon, 6 to 1, on the outside, 100 yards from the wire it was anybody's race. Radtke did not go to the whip, neither did he lose his head, but he rode Yorkshire Lad out with supreme confidence, taking the race by a nostril, with Just So in the place, a length before Jack

McKeon. The mile was turned in 1:39 Lady Amelia, 2 to 9 favorite, made her first appearance of the year in the opening event, for mares, at five furlongs, and simply enjoyed a breezing gallop. She got off poorly, but went to the front when Willie Davis called upon her, and won easily by a length from Zienap, 20 to 1, who had five lengths over W. H. Snyder's Cousin Kate, 8 to 1. The latter beat Veribest a head. The time was

There was nothing to the second event, for three-year-olds, six furlongs, but G. F. Johnson's Israfel, who was pounded down from 2 to 1 to 3 to 2 and finally even money. made a runaway of it and was in hand all the way, winning in a gallop by four lengths in 1:13 1-5. W. S. Price's Deuxtemps, 13 to 1, got the place, after being shut off, from John A. Drake's Fim Ridge, 20 to 1, who swerved all over the wack. Newton Emnington's Edna Jackson, a full sister to the noted weight carrier Re-

Newton Feinington's Edna Jackson, a full sister to the noted weight carrier Reliable, was victorious in the handicap at six furlongs. She went up in the edds to 1 to 1, while Monet, to whom she gave a pound by the scale, was basten down to even money. O'Neill got Edna Jackson away from the post like a flash, and she was never caught. She was in hand at the end, where she beat Mike Clancy's Tommy Waddell, 10 to 1, by half a length. The latter was rather poorly handied by Sewell but managed to take the measure of Monet by three parts of a length. Edna Jackson reeled off the three-quarters in the fast time of 1:12 4-5.

Radtke rode his second winner in the last event, a haif mile dash for maiden two-year-olds, when he came home alone with J. W. Henning's Brushman, a neglected 8 to 1 shot. The latter was the leader at all stages and defeated James R. Keene's Molesey, 10 to 1. A length and a half back H. T. Griffin's El Tovar, 5 to 1, took third money from Newton Bennington's Merrill, 8 to 5 favorite, by a head. The latter did not receive an energetic ride from O'Neill. Sydney Paget's Norfolk also burned up a lot of smart money. Three favorites were triumphant. The track was fast.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR AQUEDUCT.

Rockaway Selling Stakes and Two Handlcaps the Features. There should be some more good racing at Aqueduct to-day, as the card is particu-larly attractive. For the Rockaway Selling

Stakes, six furlongs, Keator and Diamond appear the best, with Consideration and Aeronaut possible factors. Ormonde's Right has top weight in the handicap at a mile, with Red Knight and Monet to beat. In another handicap, at five furlongs, Battleaxe Benevolent, Watergrass and Gold Badge look formidable. The second and fifth events are for two-year-olds, while the last race, a six furlong dash for maiden three-year-olds, may be a duel between Ballot Box and Sahara. CHAMPIONS BEGIN THEIR RISE. NEW YORKS WIN AGAIN AND TAKE

THIRD PLACE. Pittsburgs Get a Reverse That Tumbles Them Back a Notch-Bostons at the Head of the List for the Time Being -League Race Now Settling Down.

It was by no means so hard for the world's champions to win from Brooklyn yesterday, Stricklett being a chief contributor to the defeat of the Donovans. The victory helped improve the position of the New Yorks con-siderably, as they broke the tie for third place. Pitrsburg succumbed to the Cincinnatis, who are beginning to go some. Chicago plastered it all over the St. Louis team. The Bostons did not play yesterday, and as a re sult are in first place. Pittsburg is second, with the New Yorks third. The results:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4: BROOKLYN, 1.

The world's champions beat the Brooklyns at Washington Park yesterday by taking advantage of Brooklyn's mistakes. There were enough mistakes for the New Yorks to win easily, though they did not make many runs. But as Brooklyn made only one run, the mere fact that New York's tallying extended to the plural stage made victory easy. The New Yorks hit neither Stricklett nor Eason hard, but made sheir hits when needed. Stricklett was pitching very well until he became involved in a debate with Umpire Emslie in the third inning. "Resolved, that my decision goes," was the subject of the debate, and Emslie had the affirmative side. He won, in the fifth inning Dahlen followed in Stricklett's footsteps. Dahlen was caught napping at first base, but kicked on Umpire Conway's decision calling him out. He, too, retired by request. Earlier in the game Dahlen had been caught napping at second base. base. Two siestas and a discharge for Bill were getting into hot water with a vengeance.

Stricklett's base on balls to Devlin in the third inning was followed by Gilbert's out at first and Casey's miss of Wiltse's grounder, on which Devlin reached third. He came in on Bresnahan's force of Wiltse. Two baggers by Mertes and Dahlen gave the New Yorks a run in the fourth, and in the fifth Devlin scored on his own single, Gilbert's sacrifice and Casey's bad throw of Bresnahan's grounder. Lewis made a low throw of Donlin's turf ripper in the sixth, and Mike stole second. Brilliant base running followed a base on balls to McGann. Donlin and McGann started forward with the pitch. Mertes bunted, and while Casey was fielding the ball to first Donlin sailed around third and came all the way home. It was the best play of the game, practically squeezing in a run from second base.

After Casey had singled to right in the fifth inning Gessler grounded to Gilbert. Gilbert's throw to Strang forced Casey, but Strang in trying for a double overthrew first. The ball bounced into the bleachers and bounced out again. Emslie allowed Gessler to come in on the wild heave.

PITTSBURG, April 18.—Cincinnati beat Pittsburg to-day in a queer game. After Overhall gave Pittsburg three runs without a hit in the first inning. Drubot, a youngster, went in and held Pittsburg to four hits and one more run for the game. Leever collapsed in the fourth and Karger finished the game, doing good work, but errors bunched in the seventh, when Cincinnatis cored three runs without a bit lost the game for Pittsburg. She will probably arrive here about the middle of next month and at once fit out for the season. The Atlantic has been on the other side since she finished first in the race across the Atlantic for the German Emperor's Cup. Commodore Wilson Marshall left the yacht at Naples. He will sail for this country from Havre and will reach here on May 10. The Atlantic will this year be the flagship of the Larchmont Yacht Club. Vice-Commodore F. M. SUTTON BEATS SLOSSON.

Record Breaker an Easy Winner in Cue Battle of the Georges. Sutton, the record breaker, defeated George

Starting badly but finishing strong, George Slosson last night in the 18.2 balk line cham-pionship billiard tournament in Madison Square Garden Concert Hall. It was Slosson's first defeat. The student was in poor form. Sutton toward the close made no less than right double figure runs in succession.

In his first five innings Sutton made a total of 35 points. There was some difference between this and his play of Tuesday night when he made 500 points in the first five in-nings. Slosson's total for five innings was 10. Each was playing poorly, getting no position at all, and spreading the oil thick. The first billiards worthy the name came in the ninth inning, when Sutton ran 21. He missed by trying to make a miscroscopical shave of the first ball, missing that ball en-tirely. Slosson then tried to do a one cushion V shot, but went wide on the return leg. Sutton resumed with a run of 53, nursing on the long balk line and driving the red to the side, holding the cue ball and scarcely moving the second ball. Finally he drove hard enough to break the ball and spread the spheres. His total was 114 to Slosson's 24.

Slosson woke up in the eleventh inning.
There was a panoramic display of cushion caroms, picturesque and difficult. Heroic treatment soon gave way to gentler methods and there was a sightly siege of fondling on the upper rail. The Student was accurate in reaching the second ball and measured force to a nicety. After the fiftieth count the play was more widespread, and from the seventieth to the eightieth shot long detours of the cushion predominated. Sut-ton's twentieth shot of his thirteenth inning was a rare gem. He banked over half the detours of the cushion predominated. Sutton's twentieth shot of his thirteenth inning was a rare gem. He banked over half the length of the table, taking the side rall to the red ball. Then the cué ball sneaked down to the end rail, at least four feet away, when reverse twist and rubber deflected it to the white ball. Sutton was through his second hundred in three innings, and at the end of the thirteenth inning the score was: Sutton, 212: Slosson, 123.

Consecutive runs by Sutton were: 64, 34, 55 and 24, the last named being in the fifteenth inning, and making the score 286 to 127 in: Sutton's favor. Sutton ended his fifteenth inning by missing the first ball. He left the ivories in good position, but Slosson, who was as one troping in the dark, attached only 9 to his collection.

While Sutton was not making any such extended stays at the table as he made on Tuesday night, he was bunching the double figure. clusters in a telling manner. His sixteenth inning was grist for the mill to the extent of 57, the same being threshed out by systematic, clocklike counting in the lower left hand balk area and its purlieus. Sutton had 343 points to Slosson's 136.

The second awakening of Slosson came in the seventeenth inning, when he lopped off a big part of Sutton's lead. He ran 102, starting at the lower extremity and swinging the balls up to the other end, where the bigger part of the run was made. He played with superb technique, and there was a fragile but firm cajolery that had all the ball to ball beauty, short table drives, frythmic stroke and other essentials of successful nursing. In the seventeenth inning Sutton made his sixth double figure run in succession—an unusual performance. The score was 381 to 238 in his favor. He followed with a break of 11, making the seventh consecutive double figure inning. He left a single cushion shot for Slosson, who landing on the right side of the second ball secured position and ran 17. On the seventeenth shot the cue ball went astray, leaving an extremely difficult two cushi

Louis Cure, the Frenchman, came to grief in yesterday afternoon's game, succumbing to the cue prowess of young Albert Cutler of Boston. The score was 500 to 439, and while the contest did not develop any brilliant features, it was interesting for its closeness all the way. Neither man got far enough away from the other to have what could be considered a safe lead.

Cutler made the creditable average of 17, and this without any bigger run than 83. He played steady billiards, showed a noticeable consistency in making the easy and the difficult shots, and went about his work with resolution. He was painstaking and persistent. Cure's plans were upset several times by kisses. The score:

Fine Horses Compete for Prizes at the Riding Academy. The exhibition of horses at the show at Durland's Academy last night was a varied and interesting one. Harness, saddle horses, polo ponies, coaching fours and jumpers kept judges busy until very late, and in many of the classes they had hard work because the competing animals were so evenly matched. The attendance at the show was quite large. Pairs of harness horses 14.3 to 15.1 hands were first to appear before the judges, and a very good lot they were. Entries had been made by J. Campbell Thompson, Carr Brothers, Elsmore Stock Farm, Mrs. A. O. Van Heusen and Mrs. William Orr Barclay. Mrs. Barclay showed Sandow and Sultan and they were driven by Mrs. Blaisdell. The amateurs were beaten, though, and the first prize, $75, went to the Spider and The Fly, amaicurs were beaten, though, and the first prize, $75, went to the Spider and The Fly, a pair of stylish bay geldings, 15 hands owned by the Fiss, Doerr & Carroll Horse Company. Mrs. A. O. Van Huesen took second prize with Saint and Sinner. Mrs. Barclay's pair were third and Clydevale Queen and Mate fourth.

The saddle horses up to carrying 200 pounds, over 15.2 hands, in class 4 were a fine lot. The saddle horses shown so far are a remarkably fine lot and as good as were ever seen in any show ring. Otto H. Kahn showed the chest-nut mare Elsa, well ridden by C. L. Rsiley. Elsa far outclassed the others and captured the blue ribbon. H. G. McElwaine's bay geiding Lebanon was second, Joseph Larcoque, Jr.'s, Somerset third, and 'Elsmore Stock Farm's My Dream highly commended.

The dealers had their innings in Class 36, which was for single harness horses 14.3 to 15.2 hands. It welve out of the twenty entered showed and George D. King won with the chestnut mare Easter Bell. John Arthur took second prize with Vermont Boy. Vigour, owned by Carr Bros., was third, and Roseler got the consolation ribbon. She is a black mare owned by the Continental Stables.

The entries in the polo pony class were so numerous that the judges ivided it. One half was for those up to 180 pounds and the other those up to 200. They, were ridden by members of the Polo Association and put through the usual trials. It took a long time to select the winners and the delay spoiled what might have been a record with the judges. In the first class Charles H. Talbot's Montes was the winner. John Cheever Cowdin's Lakewood was second and Sunflower and Sunbeam owned by R. Law-record the second prize, Sunnyside Farm's Grey Eagle was third and J. H. Munneck's Baldy fourth.

Mrs. John Gerken drove Newsboy and Shongiri in the class for pairs of harness fourth.

Mrs. John Gerken drove Newsboy and Shopgirl in the class for pairs of barness horses. They showed remarkably well, and added another blue ribbon to Mrs. Gerken's big collection.
Alfred G. Venderbilt's four won the prize for road teams. Mr. Venderbilt drove.

NEW YORK AMERICANS PLAY ELEVEN INNINGS TO A TIE.

Griffith's Men Rally in the Ninth, as Usual, and Score Enough to Save a Defeat-Clevelands and the Hilltoppers Together Held the First Place in the League Race.

The New York Americans brought off another ninth inning rally in Boston again yesterday, but did not win the game, for their ef-forts resulted in tieing up the score. The game was called at the end of the eleventh inning on account of darkness, with matters all square. At least if Griffith's men did not other proof that the team is going well this year. The Chicagos somewhat unexpectedly were beaten by the Detroits and they lost their share of the tripartite hold on first place. The Clevelands occupy that position, in company with the New Yorks: The results: New York, S: Boston, 3. Philadelphia, 4; Washington, 2. Cleveland, 4; St. Louis, 0.

and Boston ball teams are pretty evenly matched was again demonstrated to-day when they played an eleven inning game to a tie of three runs each. On several occasions each team had a chance to win out by the regular one run margin, but contrary to past performances something always happened to prevent. Both nines scored a run in the opening inning, the visitors getting theirs on Keeler's bunt and two battery errors. There was nothing doing again until the fifth, when the locals got a man across the plate through keeler's bunt and two battery errors. Increwas nothing doing again until the fifth, when the locals got a man across the plate through the fumbling of a slow twisting ground ball by Moriarty, which allowed Harris to reach first. Then Selbach sacrificed and the big pitcher reached third on Cellins's out at first. Then Stahl dropped a hit in left garden that was good for two sacks and Harris scored, putting the locals in the lead.

Neither team did anything then until the ninth, although Harris passed three mean in succession in the eighth, after fanning Coffroy. Keeler started things in the finth with a whipping single past third. Elberfeld hit to Harris and the latter threw wild trying to nail Keeler at second, and the two visitors moved up a base each on Chase's sacrifice. Williams came to the rescue with a fine drive to right, scoring Keeler and Elberfeld, but he was nipped trying to stretch the hit into a two bagger, and Conroy fanned. In Boston's half Grimshaw started things with the first hit off Leroy, who had succeeded Clarkson in the preceding inning. Ferris sacrificed and Grimshaw reached third on Godwin's scratch, scoring the tying run on Selbach's single. Matters looked fine for the visitors in the tenth when Moriarty got a pass from Tannehill, who succeeded Harris.

Kleinow bunted and Peterson dropped Collins's throw, Moriarity going to third and the batter to second. McGuire batted for Leroy and was thrown out by Collins. Dougherty hit weakly to Tannehill and was tossed out. Then Keeler retired the side by hitting to Peterson. Newton went in topich when Beston came up in the tenth, to nail Collins at second base. Parent advanced them each a base with a pretty sacrifice, but Williams retired the side by taking Freeman's low liner on the fly and tossing it to Moriarity for a double play.

The visitors went out in order in the eleventh, but the locals had still another chance to win. Peterson was thrown out by Williams, but Ferris smashed a liner that Moriarity could not hold. Graham fouled to Chase a

ONE ARMED BOWLER DEAD. Willey of Boston Was an Expert With the Cue Also. Harry Willey of Boston, the champion one armed bowler, pool and billiard player of New England, dropped dead of heart disease at Forty-second street and Seventh avenue last night. He was 30 years old. Willey had lived since boyhood at the Hotel Rexford in Boston. When he was about 15 years old a fire broke out in the cellar one night. Willey rushed through the flames, aroused the employees of the hotel and was the means of having the fire put out before any one but himself was injured. His left arm was so badly burned that it had to be amputated at the elbow. Since then he had been a pensioner of the Rexford. He was manager of the pool and billiard rooms and bowling alleys there at the time of his death. He was known throughout the country as a cue and bowling country the state of his death.

ing expert. He never used a bridge on the green table.

Willey is survived by his wife, who is in Boston. He was here as a spectator at the billiard tournament.

ALL STAR RUGBY TEAM. Eastern Football Union Selects Players to

Meet Canadians. Instead of sending the Flushing Rugby Football Club to Toronto to play in the international match under English Rugby football rules, the Eastern Rugby Football Union has decided that New York shall be represented by an all star team.

The aggregation has been chosen from among the players of the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Pioneer Football Club, Brooklyn Football Club, New York Football Club, Flushing Football Club, Staten Island Football Club and Yale University.

The team will leave for Toronto on Friday evening, playing the Canadians on Saturday afternoon and returning to New York on Sunday. Although the combination has had Sunday. Although the combination has had but little practice the local followers of the game expect that the American players will make a good showing in the first international Rugby football match ever played between the United States and Canada.

Those who will make the trip and the positions they will play are as follows:
Fullback—Ottewill, Ploneer F. C. Three-quar ters—Andrews, Crescent A. C. Harvey, Flushing F. C.; Bell, Ploneer F. C., and Kchnedy, Crescent A. C. Halfbacks—Robertson, Ploneer F. C., and Patimore, Brooklyn F. C. Forwards—Craigie, N. Y. F. C.; Roberts, Flushing F. C.; Scott, Ploneer F. C.; Flinch, Staten Island F. C.; Hazel, Flushing F. C.; Wood, Crescent A. C.; Johnstone, Crescent A. C. and Robertson, Ploneer F. C. Substitutes—Bower, Veeder Linn and Stevensen, Yale, and Roberts, Flushing F. C.

Lacrosse.

SWARTHMORE, April 18.-Swarthmore Col-Swarthmore, April 18.—Swarthmore College lacrosse team defeated Harvard College twelve this afternoon in a fast game, witnessed by a crowd of enthusiastic rooters from both colleges, by the score of 7 to 1. This was their first home game and Swarthmore had only three old men on the team Ackerman made Harvard's only goal. Eastwick, Price and Lamb starred for Swarthmore, while Ackerman and Vance led for Harvard.
